Lars stood in the kitchen doorway, frowning at where the loose frayed carpet from the living room met the kitchen. James had said he would put a carpet plate down.

"James!" Lars yelled. "When are you gonna fix this dodgy carpet end? You said you'd do it yesterday and it's not done".

Lars heard James approaching, grumbling under his breath. "Geez Lars, we were practising all day yesterday. I didn't have time. I'll..."...he tripped over the loose carpet and fell forwards, right into Lars' arms.

"On second thoughts" said Lars, cuddling James close and grinning. "Maybe you oughta leave it".
